Global Roofing Group and True Metal Solutions Announce Merger, Launching Global Wallpanel Group.

[PHOENIX, 8/1/2023] - Global Roofing Group and True Metal Solutions, two leading companies in the construction industry, are thrilled to announce their merger, resulting in the formation of Global Wallpanel Group. This strategic merger brings together the exceptional expertise and resources of both organizations, allowing them to offer an unparalleled range of solutions to their valued customers worldwide.

With this merger, True Metal Solutions will retain its esteemed name and continue to specialize in fabrication and engineering, while joining forces with Global Roofing Group metal operations to establish Global Wallpanel Group as a powerful industry leader in innovative wall panel solution installations.

The combined strengths of Global Roofing Group and True Metal Solutions will drive enhanced efficiencies, synergies, and increased capabilities in delivering top-quality products and services. Clients can expect a seamless transition, with the merger bringing forth a comprehensive suite of offerings, including metal fabrication, engineering expertise, and state-of-the-art wall panel solutions and install.

The Global Wallpanel Group will leverage the deep industry knowledge and experience of both organizations to revolutionize the construction landscape. By combining their unique strengths and leveraging advanced technologies, the new entity aims to bring cutting-edge wall panel solutions to a wider range of projects across various sectors.

"We are extremely excited about the merger and the launch of Global Wallpanel Group," said Eric Stiller, President of True Metal Solutions. "This collaboration will enable us to provide our customers with an expanded range of services, superior product offerings, and exceptional value. Together, we will redefine the possibilities in construction and set new standards for excellence."

"We see great potential in the merger of True Metal Solutions and Global Roofing Group," said R.J. Radobenko, CEO of Global Roofing Group. "By combining our strengths, we can leverage each other's expertise and resources to offer unparalleled solutions in the wall panel industry. We are confident that Global Wallpanel Group will drive innovation and create a brighter future for our clients."

The merger between True Metal Solutions and Global Roofing Group is a testament to their shared commitment to delivering exceptional results and exceeding customer expectations. Together, they will forge a new path in the construction industry, transforming the way wall panel solutions are conceptualized, designed, and installed.
